Mr. Richard Kleindienst
Deputy Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kleindienst,

NBC's "First Tuesday" handling of Army Intelligence activities reminds me of something I've intended asking but have long forgotten. Enclosed is a DJ-118 form covering it and my check.

There should be further FBI reports on this. The two available at the National Archives are quite incomplete. For example, Powell was trapped in the Texas School Depository Building, with a camera. It seems unlikely that under such dramatic circumstances, any man, especially one of his training and experience, would have content himself with but a single picture. It also seems unlikely that, having been trapped inside the building, there was no official interest in him and his picture or pictures for so long.

So, I would like copies of any other reports on, of or about Powell and to be informed of and permitted to examine any other pictures, if he took any.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
